

Do you know the next

Miriam Dudley Instruction
Librarian of the Year Award winner ?

INSTRUCTION SECTION MIRIAM DUDLEY INSTRUCTION LIBRARIAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

Recognizes an individual librarian who has made a significant contribution to the advancement of instruction in a college or research library environment. The award honors Miriam Dudley, whose pioneering efforts in the field of bibliographic instruction led to the formation of the ACRL Instruction Section.

Nominees should have achieved distinction in one or more of the following areas:

- Planning and implementation of an academic instruction program in a library environment that has served as a model for other programs nationally or regionally
- Production of a body of research and publication that has a demonstrable impact on the concepts and methods of teaching and information-seeking strategies in a college or research institution
- Sustained participation in organizations, at the regional or national level, devoted to the promotion and enhancement of academic instruction in a library environment
- Promotion, development, and integration of education for instruction in ALA accredited library schools or professional continuing education programs that have served as models for other courses and programs

Award: $1,000

Nominations due

December 4, 2015

See details in the Awards & Scholarships section of the ACRL Web site:

www.ala.org/acrl

ACRL *Advancing learning
Transforming scholarship*

Association of College & Research Libraries
A division of the American Library Association